10. By Notice of Appointment, Salvatore LaMonica, Esq. was also appointed as interim Chapter 7 Trustee, and by operation of law, is the permanent Trustee of the Debtors’ estates.

THE PARTIES

12. Pre-petition, the Debtor operated approximately 70 vessels around the world.

13. Upon information and belief, the Defendant is a foreign limited liability company and maintains a business address at 238A Thomson Road #17-03 Novena Square Tower, Singapore 307684.

14. As the permanent Trustee of the Debtor's estate, the Plaintiff is authorized to commence this action pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §323 and Bankruptcy Rule 6009.

ALLEGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

15. On or about April 22, 2009, the Debtor made a transfer of its property to the Defendant, by bank wire, in the sum of $250,721.00 (the "Preferential Transfer").

16. The Preferential Transfer was a transfer of the Debtor's property because the wire was issued and/or drawn upon Debtor's funds from the Debtor's bank account.

17. The Preferential Transfer is property of the estate.

18. The Preferential Transfer was made to the Defendant for goods delivered and/or services rendered to the Debtor prior to the Filing Date.

19. The Defendant was a creditor of the Debtor at the time of the Preferential Transfer within the meaning of Bankruptcy Code §101(10).

20. At the time of the Preferential Transfer, the Defendant had a right to payment on account of an obligation owed to the Defendant by the Debtor.

21. A demand was made by the Trustee for the return of the Preferential Transfer.

22. Despite the demand, the Defendant has failed to turn over the Preferential Transfer to the Trustee.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Incorporating All Previous Allegations 1 through 22)

23. The Preferential Transfer was made within ninety (90) days of the Filing Date.

24. Upon information and belief, the Preferential Transfer was made to, or for the benefit of, the Defendant.

25. The Preferential Transfer was made to, or for the benefit of, the Defendant because the Preferential Transfer reduced or satisfied a debt owed by the Debtor to the Defendant.

26. Upon information and belief, the Preferential Transfer was made on account of an antecedent debt owed by the Debtor to the Defendant.

27. The Preferential Transfer was made on account of antecedent debt owed by the Debtor to the Defendant based upon the business transactions and history between the Debtor and the Defendant, whereby (a) the Defendant would supply goods and/or services to the Debtor, (b) the Defendant would deliver a bill or an invoice to the Debtor for such goods and/or services, and (c) the Debtor was required to remit payment to the Defendant for such goods and/or services on a subsequent date.

28. The Preferential Transfer was made while the Debtor was insolvent.

29. The Debtor is entitled to a presumption of insolvency for the Preferential Transfer made pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §547(f).

30. The Preferential Transfer enabled the Defendant to receive more than it would have otherwise received: (a) in the Debtor's chapter 7 bankruptcy case; (b) if the Preferential Transfer had not been made; and (c) if the Defendant received payment to the extent provided by the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

31. As evidenced by the claims in this case and the debt incurred to date, the liabilities of the Debtor's estate exceed $20,000,000.

32. Presently, the assets of the estate are approximately $3,000,000 and based upon the anticipated recovery of assets, including litigation recoveries, general unsecured creditors will not receive full payment of their claims in this bankruptcy case.

33. By reason of the foregoing, the Preferential Transfer is avoidable and recoverable by the Trustee under Bankruptcy Code §§547(b) & 550.

34. By reason of the foregoing, the Trustee is entitled to a judgment: (i) avoid the Preferential Transfer; or (ii) a money judgment in the sum of not less than $250,721.00, plus interest thereon, attorneys' fees and costs.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Incorporating Previous Allegations 1 through 34)

35. The Preferential Transfer of the Debtor's property to or for the benefit of the Defendant is property of the estate.

36. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §§541 & 542 is entitled the entry of (a) an Order directing the Defendant to immediately turn over the Preferential Transfer of the Debtor's assets, in the sum of $250,721.00, plus interest thereon to the Trustee, attorneys' fees and costs, or (b) a money judgment against the Defendant and in favor of the Trustee in the sum of $250,721.00, plus interest thereon, attorneys' fees and costs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment on his claims for relief against Defendant as follows:

1. On his first claim for relief against the Defendant, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §§547 & 550 (a) a judgment avoiding the Preferential Transfer and delivering the funds to the Trustee or (b) a money judgment in the sum of $250,721.00, plus interest thereon, attorneys' fees and costs;

2. On his second claim for relief against the Defendant, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §§541 & 542 (a) an Order directing the Defendant to immediately turn over the Preferential Transfer of the Debtor's assets, in the sum of $250,721.00, plus interest thereon, attorneys' fees and costs to the Plaintiff or (b) a money judgment against the Defendant in the sum of $250,721.00, plus interest thereon, attorneys' fees and costs; and

3. Such other, further and different relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
